Response to Arguments

1. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 11-13 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

3. Claims 11-13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention.

Claim 11 recites the limitation "...for transmission thereof to a display device without converting frame rates of said moving picture video streams to a common frame rate" which was not described in the specification. Instead, the specification only describes that the arbitration and packetization unit 30 may simultaneously drive independent video sources at their natural rates onto different portions of the display screen of a display device 14 (see Specification: page 5, second paragraph). Nowhere in the specification specifically describes the limitation above.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

Art Unit: 2611

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

5. Claims 11-13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Radha et al. (U.S. 6,806,909 B1).

Regarding claim 11, Radha discloses a system (figures 8 and 10) comprising:

a processor (367 – see figure 10);

a storage (360 – see figure 10) coupled to said processor;

a video controller (351 – see figure 10) coupled to said processor; and a packetization device (352 – see figure 10) coupled to said video controller to independently packetize at least two moving video streams in different frame rates (a first video stream and a second video stream with different frame rates) for transmission thereof to a display device (283 – see figure 8) without converting frame rates of said moving picture video streams to a common frame rate (transmitting the streams having different frame rates via transport 281) (see figures 8 and 10; col. 9, line 65 to col. 10, line 4; col. 20, lines 6-19 & 33-35).

Regarding claim 12, Radha discloses a modulation device (383) to modulate and transport independently packetized streams (see col. 20, lines 33-35 and figures 8 and 10).

Regarding claim 13, Radha discloses each of video streams has a different frame rate and is packetized to be depacketized at its frame rate in the display device (each of the first and second video streams has a different frame rate and is depacketized at its frame rate by the decoder 282 for displaying – see col. 20, lines 33-35; col. 10, lines 2-6 and figures 8 and 10).

Conclusion

6. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
